Proper nouns (e.g. James, India, Egypt, Ganga and Everest) always begin with capital letters. A capital letter is used at the beginning of a sentence. A statement and an imperative sentence end with a full stop, where as an interrogative sentence ends with a question mark and an exclamatory sentence ends with an exclamation mark. Rewrite the following sentences using appropriate punctuation marks and capital letters wherever necessary. 1. river yamuna flows through agra 2. eiffel tower is the most famous monument in france 3. my brother is a singer 4. where have you been all this while 5. you look hot are you ill 6. come here at once 7. rohan is a smart boy 8. sania couldnt believe her eyes when she saw the bicycle 9. india is the seventh largest country in the world 10. mumbai is the capital of maharashtra 11. my best friend and his family are moving to chennai 12. you dont look happy to see me do you 13. you shouldnt have done this to john 14. there is a large rain forest in south america Answers 1. However, when used improperly, punctuation marks can become cumbersome, inhibiting the reader's ability to understand the material and establish order and flow. Moreover, an excess of punctuation marks can lead to the creation of run-on sentences - sentences in which two or more independent clauses (i.e., complete sentences) are joined without appropriate punctuation or conjunction. For these reasons, it is beneficial to learn how to properly use punctuation marks. Punctuation marks are symbols that indicate the structure and organization of written language, as well as intonation and pauses to be observed when reading aloud. In written English, punctuation is vital to disambiguate the meaning of sentences. For example, "woman, without her man, is nothing" (emphasizing the importance of men) and "woman: without her, man is nothing" (emphasizing the importance of women) have greatly different meanings, as do "eats shoots and leaves" (to mean "consumes plant growths") and "eats, shoots and leaves" (to mean "eats firstly, fires a weapon secondly, and leaves the scene thirdly"). "King Charles walked and talked; half an hour after, his head was cut off" is less surprising than "King Charles walked and talked half an hour after his head was cut off". (For English usage, see the articles on specific punctuation marks.) The rules of punctuation vary with language, location, register and time and are constantly evolving. Certain aspects of punctuation are stylistic and are thus the author's (or editor's) choice. Tachygraphic language forms, such as those used in online chat and text messages, may have wildly different rules.
